Bicentennial Events

Corinth CSD students, staff and families have been getting in the bicentennial spirit with some recent events.

At the Founders Day Dinner held at Brookhaven on March 25, Corinth High School students Hannah St. John, Hannah Mattison, Kelsey Baker, Charles Beck, Jo Mosca and Tyler Mattison were named to the Bicentennial Court based on their heartfelt writing entries on the theme of "Corinth History." Chesnie York and Nikklas Milligan were crowned the King and Queen of Corinth based on their entries. High school student Jacob Ellis provided the musical entertainment, and the Corinth Middle School Student Council prepared and donated Bicentennial-themed table favors for the event.

Following this successful event, parents of Corinth Middle School students were challenged to "break out" of a bicentennial-themed escape room challenge during the school's annual Family Night on Tuesday, March 27.

The activity was developed by members of the Corinth Middle School Math Club, led by adviser and Family Night chairperson Tina Peck. Under Peck's guidance, the students developed a number of puzzle clues around the theme of Corinth's bicentennial.

Corinth CSD is excited to join in the celebration of our town's bicentennial, and we thank everyone who helped make these events a success.
