What is a graduation contract?

A graduation contract can be defined as an exchange of promises or an agreement between the student, parent and the Corinth Central School District stating that you will graduate from High School on/or before the end of the school year that you turn 21. The following documentation defines the responsibility shared in achieving this goal.

Corinth Central School District's Responsibilities

- Provide a healthy, safe and positive environment.
- Motivate each student to develop attitudes which contribute to emotional maturity and the desire to maintain good physical, mental and emotional health.
- Instill in each student a respect for the rights and beliefs of others and a sense of moral and ethical values.
- Assist in the development of good work and study habits, as well as logical and critical thinking skills.
- Offer opportunities for creativity.
- Encourage an appreciation for the aesthetic value of the arts.
- Promote a broad and comprehensive program of co-curricular activities.

- Provide each student with a sound program of educational opportunities and vocational guidance in the selection of a course of study which will enable each student to achieve a level of success commensurate with his/her ability.
- Stimulate the desire for further knowledge necessary to be a productive, contributing member of the community.
- Seek the best administrative and instructional personnel possible in order to attain the above goals.

Parent/Guardian Responsibilities

- Contribute to a healthy, safe and positive environment.

- Ask your child about school on a daily basis.
- Provide a quiet place for homework and assignments.
- Attend parent/teacher conferences.
- Ensure your child is coming to school and getting to school on time. Communicate with the school to address any problems or concerns as they arise.

Student's Responsibilities

- Contribute to a healthy, safe and positive environment.
- Work toward an attitude which contributes to emotional maturity and the desire to maintain good physical, mental and emotional health.
- Respect the rights and beliefs of others and maintain a sense of moral and ethical values.
- Keep an open mind and be receptive to new ideas and different methods of education.
- Develop good work and study habits.
- Be committed to achieving academic success through constant effort.
- Take advantage of opportunities for creativity.
- Expose yourself to a broad and comprehensive program of co-curricular activities.

- Select a course of study which will enable you to achieve a level of success commensurate with your ability.

- Seek out assistance to promote success in your academic, social, emotional and physical well being.

- Challenge yourself to seek further knowledge necessary to be a productive, contributing member of the community.

AGREEMENT: We have read the terms of this contract and hereby agree to all conditions set forth within.
